INDIAN CREEK HIGH SCHOOL TRAFALGAR, INDIANA

Yes we're here too!

Indian Creek High School? I know, I know, you've never heard of it, but you have heard of all the "more important" towns surrounding our school. Okay, Okay, you know Franklin, it's got the college and all the exciting hangouts. Then there's Columbus and all the factories, and oh, Nashville, every nature and shopping lovers dream. But what about Indian Creek—well let me tell you about it—it's a neat school, it sits in a little town of Trafalgar at the highway junctions of 135 and 252. Three townships, Nineveh, Hensley, and Jackson form the school corporation that educates approximately 1800 students a year. All this takes place year after year and still people seem to forget that—YES, WE'RE HERE TOO!

WE'RE HERE TO SEE THE HAPPENINGS- OUR TOWNS- OUR PLACES-

Where am I? I'm probably the only student in ICHS that doesn't know where I am. It was a pretty afternoon, so I just climbed behind the wheel and here I am lost—wait, what's that, the FFA Center—wow, am I glad to see that. It lets me know I'm not too far from downtown Trafalgar, now I can sit back and enjoy the spots. I'll go to Morgantown. Well, here I am looking up at the graffiti water tower, one sure can't miss that. But wait, I think I'll go back, I want to be where it's calm and peaceful—not by industry, besides, the kids at school say it's a blast to go there and see everybody, of course I'm talking about Princes Lake in Nineveh, to get there I'll go through the city limits, it's a nice drive.

On my journey today, I realized that the towns I visited all have something special, which makes it a lot easier for people to see that YES, WE'RE HERE TOO!

LIVING IT UP

A TYPICAL DAY AT THE CREEK

Many times society has been referred to as a "jungle". Every jungle has its various types of animals. In the mini-society of people watching, here is a condensed guide to a few of the basic species of High School Hall Roamers generally seen during passing period.

Frequently seen is the Large Mouth Hall Length Shouter. This species comes in pairs or groups. Their oddity is an insistence of splitting up into smaller groups with one group stationing itself at one end of the hall and the other at the opposite end. Then, while slowly moving towards each other, yell as a form of communication. Although their call can be heard for great distance, they never seem to be able to understand each other. While moving closer together, they eventually evolve into the Close Knit Hall Blocking, Walking, Talkers. This variety forms a line of hall width, blocking traffic moving slower than it is, and looking up only often enough to prevent collision with a wall or other immovable objects. (It should be noted that "Immovable objects" does not include any unfortunate living creature that might become caught in their path.)

Found anywhere from wedged behind in open doors to a gymnasium corner are the Hand Holding Cozy Corner Cuddlers. A few of the more brave pairs will upon occasion attempt at meeting of lip to lip or sometimes just lip to cheek.

One of the less appreciated types is the Turn Coated Apple Polisher whose habitat is nearly anywhere the teacher is. The Apple Polisher often has a favorite teacher. In the classroom environment the Apple Polisher is often the one who reminds a teacher to give or collect homework. Although popular with some teacher, the Polisher is never very popular with fellow students.

These are only a few of the "animals" which can be spotted during every 5 minute passing period during A Typical Day At The Creek.

A Fast Ride Behind a Fast Boat. . . .

A Dip in the Lake. . .

Indian Creek students were released on May 28th to August 25th for "fun time."

For some of you, your "fun time" may be spent working, and saving, or blowing your money as soon as you get it. But for most of us, summer always brings memories. A dip in a pool, a throw of a football, or just letting down and being yourself.

To our class of 1977, it holds a different meaning—a beginning of a new era, serious thoughts for the future, and the last of the High School Days.

Queen's Court...

Candy Apples...

Cotton candy, lighted rides that go around and around, a walk through the livestock barns and 4-H are some of the things that make a fair. It might be any county fair or the Indiana State Fair, but everyone goes—just to see the people they haven't seen all summer.

The 1976 Johnson County Fair was special last year when four Indian Creek Junior girls received honors at the queen contest. Debbie Coy was voted "Miss Congeniality." But the highlight for I.C. was when Karen Ford, Kathy Richards, and Pat Markward were announced into the queen's court. Fairs happen but once a summer and the 1976 Johnson County Fair was a super happening.

Homecoming- A Week of Excitement

Homecoming, the height of autumn. It's when everyone suddenly realizes that the school year has begun. The events of Homecoming week were brought to a close with Powder Puff football, the game against Brown County and the climax . . . the dance, with "A Good Day's Catch" performing. The week's events included Brave Day, Fifties Day and Spirit Day. Spirit and excitement rose when the final score read Braves 12, Eagles 6; but for Tammy Taylor the big moment came when she was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1976. It was an exciting time for everyone. Indian Creek's students with their dates, were filled with fun and excitement.

Little Theatre Premiere: "OUR TOWN"

The first play to be presented on the new Middle School stage was "Our Town" by the ICHS Dramatics Club. The play revealed three major stages of the human being: growing up, love and marriage, and death. It was a very unique production and the cast of this difficult play made it a big success.

1. This soda scene provided one of the most favorable parts for the play.
2. Emily (Ronna Heiney) and George (Allen Courtney) finally tied the knot of love.
3. Mrs. Gibbs (Judy Mitchell) and Mrs. Webb (Debbie Ray) breaking beans while having one of their early morning talks.

5. George and his sister, Rebecca (Patty Albertson), gazing at the moon and discussing "the mind of God!"
6. The Stage Manager, portrayed by Joe Wells, describes Grover's Corners and gives us some background of the town.
7. Many of the townspeople come together to see the marriage of George and Emily.
8. Emily, being of intelligent mind, answers a Math problem puzzling George.

Let it snow

"Oh the weather outside is frightful, but the fire is so delightful and since we've no place to go, Let It Snow, Let It Snow."

The lyrics to this popular song of "Let It Snow," written by Jule Styne, certainly described the 1977 weather conditions.

Several people in the U.S. were stranded without food, water or heat. Martial laws were issued several times for people who attempted to travel. Nearly all businesses and industries had closed to conserve energy. In some areas, snow drifts reached the height of 7 feet.

ICHS was out of school for ten days during the month of January, due to the hazardous conditions, and winter had not yet reached its peak.

IC's Assistants

Many students enjoy helping out the faculty here at IC. Their jobs extend from running errands, to saving lives. Among the assisting jobs are office, guidance, library, A.V., and the assistants for the new pool at the Middle School. The faculty and school truly appreciates their help at Indian Creek.

1. Mr. Ritter enjoys having his own pool assistants.
2. The A.V. assistants help teachers show films to their classes.
3. The helpers for the guidance department.
4. The office assistants.
5. The girls who help in the library.

"No, No Nanette"-The New 1925 Musical

"No, No Nanette," billed as "The New 1925 Musical," started the nostalgic craze on Broadway. It's a show that takes the audience by the hand and leads it back to the Never-Never-Land of the Twenties. Things were dearer, sweeter, and sillier then, and so is "No, No Nanette" now.

Jimmy, in his travels around the country, has met three young girls. The Smiths are well-to-do, and his wife, Sue, refuses to spend money as freely as Jimmy would like to. Spending money makes him happy, and the three girls are more than willing to see that he does not get depressed.

Nanette, a very independent young lady, despises the word "no" and wants to do as she pleases. Tom, Lucille's nephew who falls in love with Nanette, finally tames her and convinces her to marry him.

The music lyrics, and the story of "No, No Nanette" combine to make what the critics acclaimed the "happiest show in town."

1. Some of Nanette's friends get together to have some fun on the beach.
2. Nanette (Debbie Ray) and Tom (Mike Branham) confess that they love each other.
3. Billy Early (Joe Wells) explains to Lucille (Dawn Woods) that he has not been philandering with the "Three Happies."
4. Tap dancers in their final pose for the famous tune "I Want to Be Happy."
5. "Hey, what kind of a party is this? Let's have a little fun!" Sandy Walker portrayed Sue in the play.

6. Pauline (Mary Jo Kuntz), the maid, shows everyone how to "Take a Little One Step," as she uses her very own style.

7. Betty (Judy Mitchell), Flora (Ronna Heiney), and Winnie (Cyndi Catt)—the Three Happies decide to "drop" Jimmy (Steve Brown).

"Dancing in the Moonlight"

As always, the Juniors of 1977 worked hard to make the Junior-Senior Prom a big success.

For the first time, the Prom was moved to the Middle School, with the dance being held in the commons area.

King, Mike Miller, and Queen, Arlene Orff, reigned over the festivities for the evening. Members of their court were: Janet Sisson, Tammy Taylor, Sandy Walker, Susan Whitaker, Ed Harvey, Bill Hogue, Ron Lattimore, and Kevin Millikan.

"Stone's Crossing" provided the music of the evening. With moodful decorations and relaxed atmosphere, one could feel as if they were really "dancing in the moonlight."

2. Mr. Youngen looks over the activities of the Prom.
3. Couples sit and enjoy the music of Stone's Crossing.
4. Hard work by the Juniors at concessions and generous donations of time and money provided the funds for the best Prom ever!
5. One of the tables watch as other couples dance.

Post Prom '77

The Post Prom was enjoyed by all who attended. Activities included volleyball, basketball, Kickball, and ping pong. The pool was also open for swimming. Music was provided by "Delbert," a local band from Peoga. Snacks were provided by the Junior class, who made the 1977 Prom and Post Prom a big success.

6. Basketball was among the many activities of the Post Prom.
7. Leesa Long seems to be very choosy when it comes to food.

8. Mrs. Sturgell greets some members of the Band at the door.
9. Miss Ellison is hard at work, as usual.

Special Events

Much entertainment was brought to the Creek this year in the way of convocations. Among them was the program presented on Veteran's Day by the combined music department in the School Corporation. This was the first time in IC's history that all three school townships united in our high school. Dave Evans also visited IC to talk with the Seniors about his part in the legislature.

The North Central Association spent a few days here at Indian Creek in order to re-evaluate our high school. They visited classes, talked to students and teachers, and examined our school facilities. They are a very important team and we thank them.

1. The High School and Middle School Bands and Choirs perform for the student body.
2. The North Central Association re-evaluating team.
3. Congressman Dave Evans informs the Senior class of his political views.
4. The Rifle and Flag Corps display the American flag for the Veteran's Day program.
5. The Morgan County REMC gives a demonstration on safety of their equipment.

GETTING TOGETHER

SHARING FUN AND IDEAS

Sharing fun and ideas is definitely a group action when ICHS "gets together" for club meetings.

Wednesday mornings get pretty exciting with such clubs as, International Language Club, Drama Club, Thespians, Lettermen's, Pep Club, and Science Clubs planning parties, educational trips, and just sharing a couple of laughs.

At the beginning of the year, officers are elected to represent the club and carry on their expected duties. Together with their sponsors, they set up constitutions and arrange money making projects for the ensuing year.

Two prominent organizations at Indian Creek are National Honor Society and Student Council. NHS honors juniors and seniors for leadership, scholarship, character and service, to the school and community. Student Council is the student government arm at Indian Creek, and is responsible for coordinating student activities with the school administration.

Therefore, all of you can see IC definitely gets together.

IC's Actors and Actresses

The biggest activity of the Dramatics Club this year was the production of the play "Our Town." This was the first play to ever be presented on the new Middle School stage. Some of the Thespians also acted in the play and many members of the Drama Club participated in the musical "No, No Nanette."

3. One of the characters, Allen Courtney as George, in "Our Town."
4. Ronna Heiney portrayed Emily in the play.

FCA and Language Clubs

The FCA has had an active club this year. Many have participated in attending church as a Christian group and they have also had a few guests from the Athletes in Action.

Among the many activities of the Language Club, perhaps the biggest was the "International Af-fair." Held on May 3, it consisted of chariot races, singing, dancing, and a lot of good food. They've had a cake raffle and also caroled in Morgantown at Christmas.

Both clubs participated in the basketball game for the Cancer Fund and help in many other activities to better the community.

1. The French, JCL and Spanish clubs combined this year to form one Language Club.
2. John Tzitzinikas, a foreign exchange student from Greece, studies in French class.

3. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes with sponsor, Mr. Hynds.

Go! Fight! Win!

Athletes Together

The Lettermen's Club is for those who have accomplished great athletic feats. They have earned their varsity letter through many hard hours of practice and work.

The Girls and Boys Pep Clubs have shown their spirit throughout the year, especially when they needed it the most—sectionals. They help the cheerleaders cheer our team to victory.

GAA is for those girls that are sports minded. Throughout the year they play powder puff football, they sell candy to raise money for new sports equipment.

2. The Social Science Club with sponsor Mr. Harmon.
3. Mike Senteney is contemplating his next move. The chess team finished the season with a record of three wins and five losses.
4. The Rocket Club.

Helping the Community Improving Skills

The Sunshine Society is a club for girls at IC. They are directed by Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Wertz. Their purpose is helping the community.

The Business Club is for those who wish to pursue their careers in the business world. They take trips once a year to better their skills.

Both clubs are very active and do their best to better the activities at IC.

1. The Sunshine Society Club.
2. Donna Williamson and Sandy Walker work in I-Lab.
3. The Business Club.

Leaders in All Forms

Student Council works for the student body. They sponsor many activities during the year, most known, the Homecoming festivities. Sponsors are Mr. Davis and Mr. Mitchell.

National Honor Society tapped 13 new members this past year. They select their new members on the basis of how active they are in school organizations, the 3.0 average during their high school years, and they must excel in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. They are directed by Mrs. Ditmars and Mrs. Woods

Choirs Combine Talents

The Concert Choir has accomplished much this year. Other than their tour of the elementary schools, they took part in the Christmas programs at the Franklin courthouse and the programs at the Indianapolis Circle. They performed with the Mixed Chorus, who also sang at some of the Christmas programs, and the Rhythmaires at the 1977 Graduation. Members of both choirs participated in the musical "No, No Nanette" and each was under the direction of Mr. Ric McFadden, who has done a fine job of preparing them for performances.

4. The combined Choirs gave a beautiful rendition of "Bridge Over Troubled Water" at graduation.

Rythmaires "Easin' on Down the Road"

The Rythmaires have provided much entertainment this year. They have performed for the Morgantown Senior Citizen's Benefit Show, Trafalgar and Nineveh Alumni Association, Marion County Home, N.H.S. Initiation Banquet, Johnson Co. Courthouse Employees Banquet, Proud Heritage Festival, and the North Central Evaluation Association Welcoming Banquet. Perhaps the most important performance was for the Johnson Co. Historical Society. They also have performed at many churches and banquets for sororities.

The Rythmaires did well in the District and State Music Contests, as did members Debbie Ray, Dawn Woods and Mike Branham.

5. "We told you we had to go to the restroom, Mr. McFadden!"

ICHS Marching Braves

The ICHS Marching Braves have again pleased their audiences this year as they performed at football and basketball games, concerts, and the Musicale. Directed by Mr. Stokes, they also participated in the Veteran's Day program and in the commencement exercises. Working together at different times with the choirs and Bravettes, they have succeeded in providing much listening enjoyment.

5. One of the many shows presented by the Band, Bravettes, & Flag Corps.

Bravettes Provide Entertainment for All

The Bravettes have provided much entertainment for their audiences this year. Along with leading the Band at parades & football games, they performed at many of the basketball games and participated in the Musicale. Their parades included the Martinsville Fall Foliage Festival, where they were enjoyed by all.

FFA Plows the way

The Indian Creek FFA Chapter has been very active throughout the year. Some of the many activities they have completed this year include the Muscular Dystrophy Campaign, FFA National Convention, Citrus sales, and their Chapter Farm Harvest. They also participated in the District contests, at which they had six first place ratings, including the Top Chapter in District 8.

The FFA here at Indian Creek, sponsored by Joe Park, has been very successful and will continue to be through years to come.

Education in the Home

Education out of the Home

The Future Homemakers of America were very active this year. The highlight of the year was when the Juniors and Seniors attended the 1977 Indianapolis Home Show. The club members were also very active in calendar and candy bar sales. With the money they made, they made contributions to many funds.

The Future Educators In Action has been very active this year also. They hosted the annual Fall District Convention. This year they have a Mr. FEA, Joe Wells, and a state officer, Patty Sighting. They participated in a trip to Chicago and their turn-about day.

Newspaper Staff-Smallest Ever

The Li'l Brave Staff of 1976-1977 was the smallest ever, as it was made up of just four members. Darrell Proctor served as the Editor. Dawn Woods' duties included those of News and Feature Editor. Bill Winslow was the Sports Editor, and received valuable assistance from Dan Sichting. This staff produced several fine issues including 10 and 12 pages in December. They also were responsible for the Senior Edition, which was published in May.

1977 Tomahawk Production

"Whatever turns you on!"—one of Mary Jo Kuntz's famous sayings. She was Editor-in-Chief of the 1977 Tomahawk and she had a lot of nice (and not so nice) sayings this past year. In any case, she lead the staff in pulling the yearbook through. Included in the staff was Sherry Scott—Associate Editor, Leesa Wilson—Sports Editor, Sarah Walker—Academics Editor, Lora Hickey—Business Manager, and Steve Schroeder—Cartoonist. Brenda Nix also helped first semester with layouts and typing. The whole staff put in much hard work and also had a lot of fun in this book's production.

6. Publications staff working hard as usual.

7. Sherry and Sarah are busy sorting cards for yearbooks.

8. Mary Jo Kuntz (Knutz) served as the "Big Mama" of the yearbook staff.

A.V. and Library Clubs

The A.V. Club teaches its members how to operate the A.V. machinery at Indian Creek. They are very helpful in assisting with this equipment.

Among the activities of the Library Club are their field trips to the Franklin College Library and the Middle School Library. They also sponsored cake raffle as one of their money-making projects.

Winning Ways... but not Always

Two Bits, Four Bits

Sports, the human value of competition, the sweet victories and the bitter defeats. The constant variety of activities, to boldly achieve what no team has reached before.

This is really what sports means to many of us. Here at Indian Creek many athletes have reached the lofty goals which they set when many started competition in football, basketball, baseball, cross country, track, wrestling, volleyball, golf, and tennis.

Athletes have continued to excel this year with the football, tennis, golf, wrestling, track, and baseball teams turning in fine seasons. While the cross country and basketball teams winning their conference crowns and turning in exceptional records.

We, as students, should be proud of the fine efforts and accomplishments the athletes at Indian Creek High School have reached this year.

Cross Country takes Conference

The Cross Country team had another in a long line of successful seasons. The harriers had an 8-1 record in dual meets, won the Mid-Hoosier Conference title for the 2nd year in a row, and finished third in the Johnson County meet. The team also had a second place finish in the White-land Invitational. The season was capped off when head coach Ralph Siebolt was named Mid-Hoosier Conference Coach-of-the-year.

The team was led by Mark Sisson, who was the top finisher for the Braves in every meet in which he ran. Charlie Mudd was consistently placing high behind Sisson as were other varsity runners Rory Wray, Larry Abel, Tim Sleighter, and Doug Esopenko. Other runners who ran both varsity and reserve and were an integral part of the team's success were Lonnie Teeters, Brian Nash, Tom Jacobs, David Walker, Brad Walker, Maxie Wilson, and Robbie Lockhart.

Past the Palm and Over the Net

The Varsity and Reserve Volleyball teams have continued their record of a good season with a final tally of: 9-3 for the Varsity; 10-2 for the Reserve. Rae Ann Novak, a sophomore, helped the team tremendously, even though she missed a few games because of an injury.

Next year, according to Mrs. Newton, coach of the team, they should go far and win many games. With only one senior graduating and four sophomores coming back they should have a good season next year.

End, Tackle, Center, Guard

The 1976 season was one of re-building for the Braves. Many young players played regularly, collecting valuable experience. The final record was 3-7, but, with a few breaks, it could have been better. The highlights of the season were defeats of Monrovia, who was unbeaten at the time, Deaf School, and Brown County in the homecoming game. Lack of size and numbers was the key problem of the season. Many players had to play both offense and defense, getting little rest. This problem was further compounded by injuries throughout the season.

The Cheerleaders, they're the ones that get it all together. Their spirit and enthusiasm backs the Braves to victory. During the busy year, they sponsored cake raffles. They also went to camp over the summer to learn and exchange ideas. With the new things they learned, they have improved their skills in cheerleading. They received many honors there. They are sponsored by Mrs. Mishler.

Braves on the Warpath

The boys' varsity basketball team turned in one the Creek's best records in recent years. Second year coach Max Dean led the squad to a 14-6 regular season mark and a 5-0 mark in Mid-Hoosier Conference play to capture Indian Creek's first ever conference crown in basketball. Coach Dean captured Coach of the Year honors, and Kevin Millikan and Gary Hamilton were named to the All-Conference first team, with J.D. Popplewell garnering a spot on the second team.

The season started slowly as the Braves were only 2-4 after six games. There was, however, a high point during this spell, a 72-70 triple overtime victory over Brown County in the second game. The Braves then went on the warpath. They took eight consecutive victories, including the two in the Hauser Tourney. Only two points at Greenwood spoiled the streak, as the Woodmen took a hard fought 62-60 triumph over the Braves.

The regular season ended with wins in four of the last five games. Mooresville, and again Brown County, were included on the list of Braves' victims.

The first game of the Sectional was the end of the line. Franklin's Cubs came out on the high end of a 45-33 count. The game was actually closer than the score, as the Braves' four corner stall faltered only in the last quarter. They had led by five points several times in the first quarter, but lackluster shooting, coupled with Franklin's size, speed, and strength, proved to be the final downfall.

Great Season for the Girls

The Varsity girls' basketball team wound up the year with a fine 8-6 record. Coach Ric McFadden's team was led by the play of senior Tish Speer, juniors Dawna Dugan and Linda Bartnikowski, and sophomores Dana Scott and Rae Ann Novak.

The highlight of the team's season was the Brown County Tourney, where the Creek girls defeated Hau-ser and the host Eagles to capture the first-place trophy. The girls also won the first game of the sectional over Greenwood before being beaten in the semi-finals by Center Grove.

The Reserve team of Coach Connie Weber compiled a 4-6 record. Joyce Bartnikowski, Kim Stanley, and Debbie Lyons were the squad's leaders throughout the season. A highlight was when the girls beat a strong Martinsville team.

Grapplers Continue Improvement

The wrestling team had a fine season under first-year coach Joe Myers. The squad continued to gain in experience as they defeated many powerful opponents.

Highlight of the season was freshman Brad Walker's showing in the state tournament. Walker was the first Brave ever to participate at the regional level.

Prospects for next year look good as the team will retain many of its top wrestlers.

Tracksters Win Title 2nd Year In Row

The varsity track team had another successful season as they repeated their Mid-Hoosier Conference championship and Ralph Siebolt was once again named coach-of-the-year.

Conference champions were Mark Sisson in the mile and two-mile, Charlie Mudd in the 880, Steph Kossman in the long jump and Bernie Fulton in the discus.

The Braves finished fifth in the County meet, with Sisson setting a meet record in the two-mile and Mudd capturing the 880.

Prospects for next year are very bright, as this year's team was made up almost exclusively of underclassmen.

The team will lose only three members, Ron Lattimore, Steph Kossman, and Lonnie Teeters, all who will graduate.

Girls Tracksters Cop Conference

For the second year in a row the Girls' Track Team "ran" home with the Mid-Hoosier Conference Championship Trophy; they finished 5-0 in the conference race. During the season the gals lost only to Center Grove in dual competition and finished fourth in the County. Coach Pennington is looking forward to another great season with only two girls leaving the squad with the Class of 77.

Baseballers Tie for Conference Championship

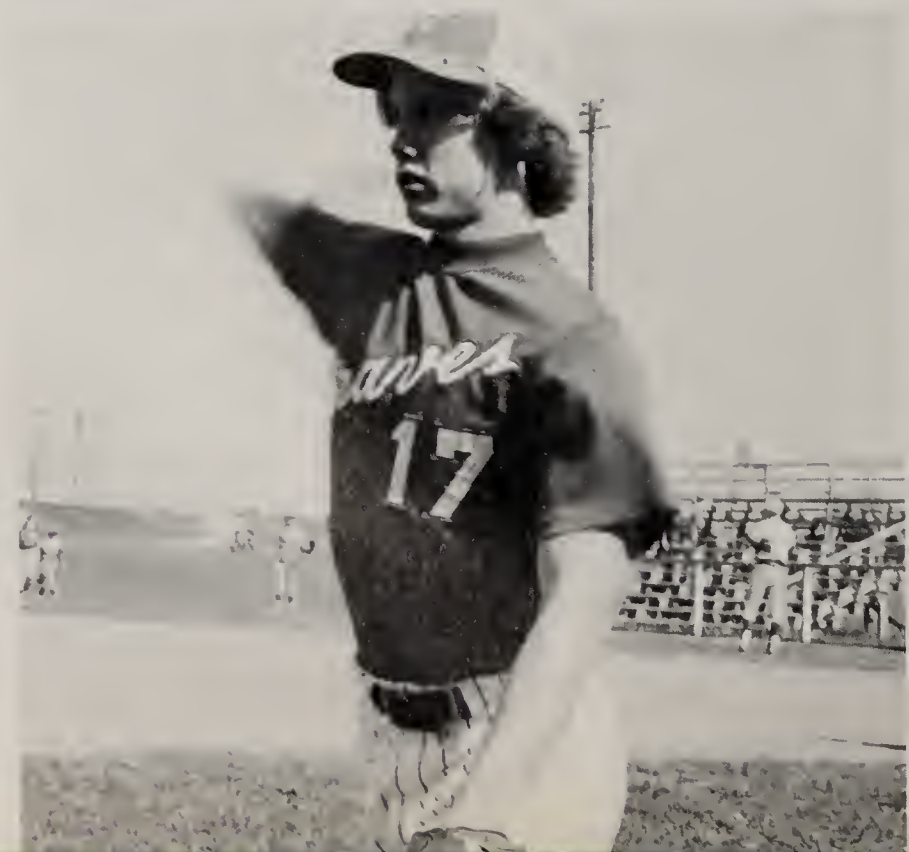

The varsity baseball team, under the direction of second-year coach Jim Anthony, got off to one of the best starts in recent seasons as the club finished second in the County Tourney.

Strong pitching performances by Buddy Drybread, Larry Sherrill, and David Walker were early season highlights as the ballclub garnered wins against many tough teams.

Kevin Haase, "Doc" Proctor, Gary Hamilton, and Richard Clark led the squad in hitting in the early going, while J.D. Popplewell, Bruce Campbell, and Sam Harbin consistently provided a steady defense.

With an abundance of underclassmen on both the varsity and reserve levels, Brave baseball fans have much to look forward to in the future.

Linksman Improve 2nd Season

Indian Creek fielded only their second golf team in the school's history, and this year's linksman showed a lot of improvement. After winning only 3 matches in their initial season, they finished in the top 10 of the Greensburg Sectional. The top man most of the season was Brian Nash, last season's most valuable player. Other varsity letter winners were Mark Sisson, Richard Hamilton, Rob Lockhart, Don Waltz, Rory Wray and Scott Southerland. The reserve team had a 1-2 record. Other golfers not lettering were Richard Skaggs, Tom Jacobs and Rusty Albertson. The team was coached by Max Dean.

The Tomahawk has covered every sport at IC, their team members, coaches and a little bit about their season. On the next few pages we want to focus on the people who make the sport. The student and the coaches, without their dedication, loyalty and hard work IC would be poorly represented in athletics.

Our Braves, since the ten years that IC has been in existence, have worked to please all sports fans by giving fans the best show possible.

So, coaches, sectionals, come what may . . . here's the 1977 Sport's scene.

Braves Finish Season With a Fine 14-7

Eventual champion Franklin ousted the outsized Indian Creek Braves from sectional play by a 45-33 count March 4th at Franklin.

The upset looked highly probable as Indian Creek jumped to an early 5-0 lead. The Braves maintained the five point margin at 7-2 and 9-4 until the Cubs tied the game at 9 at the end of the initial quarter.

In the second quarter, Franklin opened up a five point gap. The Braves cut the spread to just a deuce by halftime. The four corner was still quite effective.

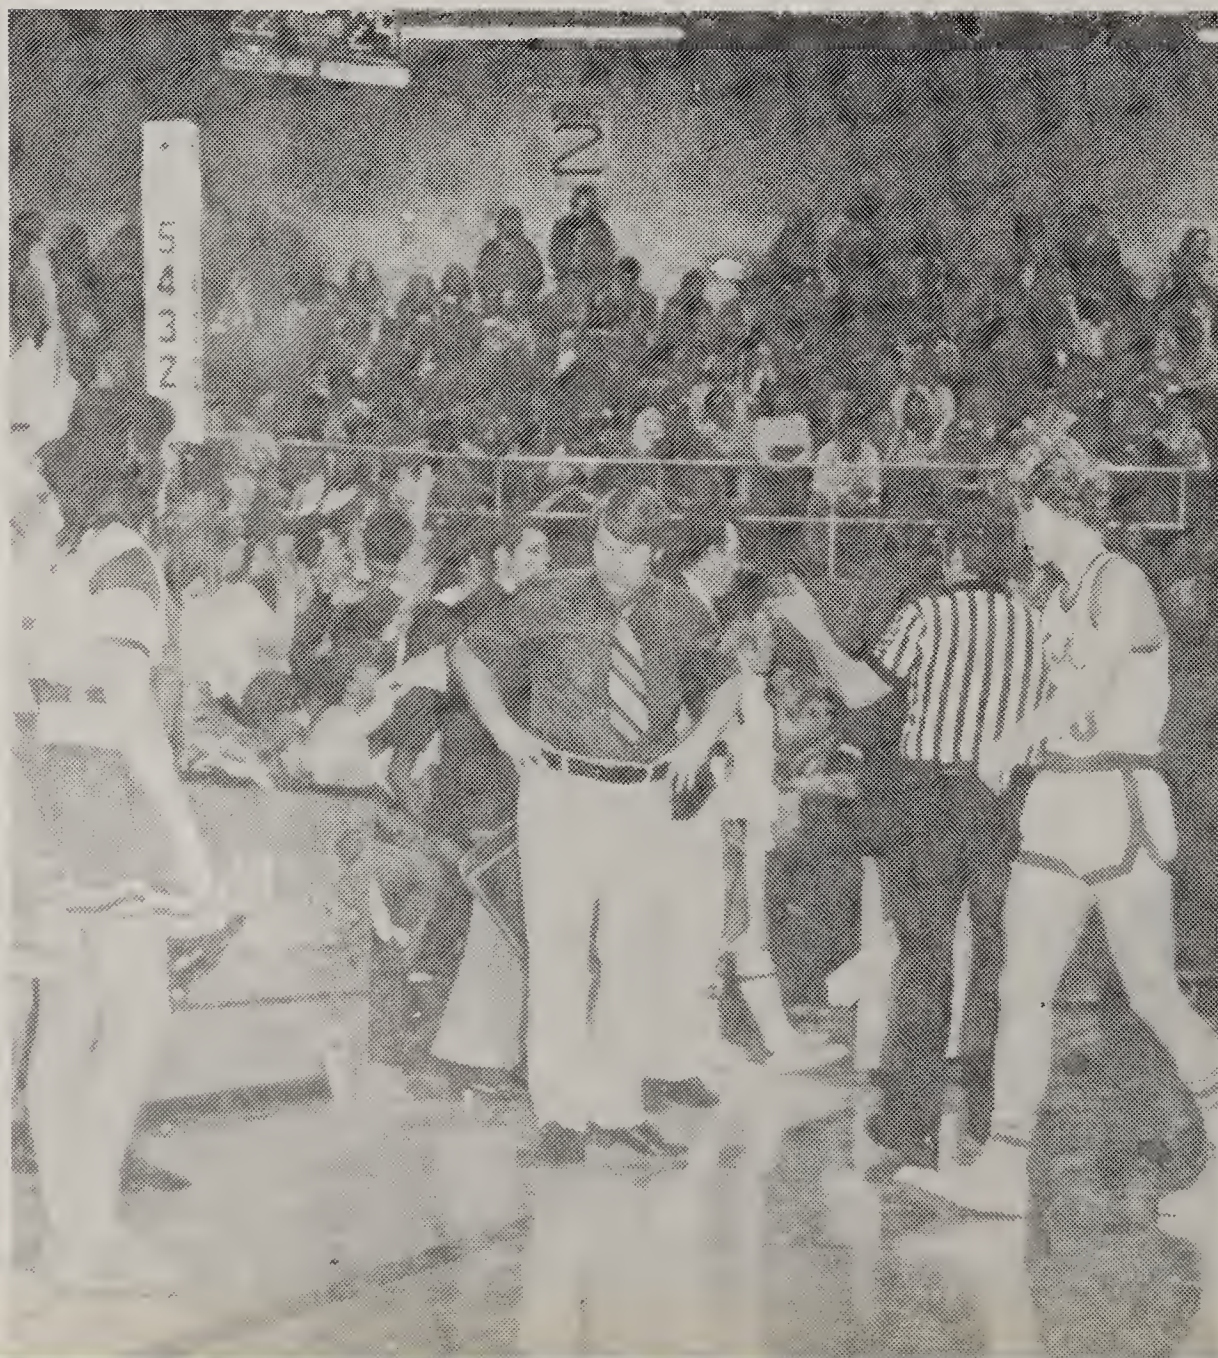

Quarter three ended with the Cubs owning a five point 29-24 lead that could have been seven had not Bernie Fulton made a ten foot jumper with two seconds left. The Braves could not get any closer than nine the rest of the way.

Gary Hamilton led the Creek in scoring with a dozen, followed by Kevin Millikan with 11 in his final game. J.D. Popplewell contributed a fine floor game.

The Braves final season ended with the Mid-Hoosier Conference crown.

The World of Sports

There's football, cross country, basketball, baseball, swimming, tennis, golf and oh so many more. So this is our RAP-UP page. Look back and remember . . .

Preparing for Tomorrow

Books, Friends, Tests and Dances

school—skül/la: a group of scholars and teachers pursuing knowledge; b: the students attending a school; also its teachers and students; 2a: an institution for the teaching of students; b: an institution for specialized higher education; 3a: the process of teaching and learning; b: attendance at a school; c: a session of school.

School has become two places with distinct functions—that of a place of education, and that of a social center, a place where students can grow socially as well as mentally. School is a mixture of books and friends, tests and dances, classes and clubs. Students are mixtures, part scholar and part socialite. There are varying degrees of each. Some study to the maximum, others not at all. Most have found a happy medium, though, and are part socialite, part scholar.

Why? In recent years young people have experienced a growing amount of freedom. They have more money and more ways to spend it. The temptations of parties, dates, and just plain goofing off are as strong as ever and students are turning to social activities in place of school work. In the last few years school officials have tried to update curriculum to draw the students' interest back to school, but the academic side of school is still lagging far behind the social side.

Reading, Writing and Self-Expression

Reading, writing and arithmetic have been associated with school since long ago. English classes at I.C.H.S. prepare all students to excel to their highest potential, especially in reading and writing. Students learn about grammar, literature, and self-expression in writing. Although English is not required for Seniors, many college bound seniors take a final English course to help them prepare for college. For underclassmen, students may be placed in classes according to their abilities. Regular English classes are offered and Academic English classes for those who excel in English, as well as sections for those who have special English problems.

1. Sophomores study hard
2. Jim Wells seems very intent on his vocabulary test.
3. "And just what do you want now?"
4. Miss Ellison teaching freshman grammar basics.

It's a Small World

Learning about languages and cultures of other countries students are finding that after all, it's a small world. Foreign Language classes were quite privileged this year to have foreign exchange students participate in many of their classes. The language courses offered are Spanish, French, and Latin. Interested students may continue into their second and even third years of language. Concentration is on speaking and grammar in the first year and studies of customs and cultures in the second and third years.

5. Students enrolled in Spanish I are taught oral language fundamentals before learning advanced grammar.

6. Interested students continue their study of Latin in Latin II.

7. Foreign Exchange students this year were Stephane Kossman, France; Gregers Dam, Denmark; Jorge Fritis, Chile; John Tzitzinikas, Greece.

8. French II students enjoy a more informal class in which they learn French cultures and language.

Future Thespians in Training

The Speech and Dramatics class presented a three act play this year to the senior class. The play was entitled "Our Gal Sal" and told the story of a country girl who came to the city and found a fellow. Although much hard work was involved, it proved to be a great experience for the cast and was well enjoyed by its audience.

Can I Have the Car?

A question familiar to every family on weekends is "Dad, can I borrow the car?" Freshmen and Sophomore students begin their driver education class with the hope that they too will soon be borrowing the car or maybe even own their own.

Whether enrolled in a semester course or a summer course, every student finds himself in a classroom studying what he thinks he already knows: the rules of the road. Then comes the tense hours of driving and gaining experience before the student is then freed.

3. If you have a question, Mrs. Woods has all the answers.
4. Senior I-lab students learn how to run the ditto machine.

Dear Sirs:

Regarding the progress of student interest in business: It has never been greater. A higher number of students continue to enroll each year in our varied courses.

Freshman may study General Business. Sophomores may enroll in typing I and can continue in typing II their Junior or Senior year. Juniors and Seniors may learn about Book-keeping, Shorthand, Secretarial Practices, and Business Machines. Seniors may learn a broader selection of business practices in I-lab.

We hope you find this report satisfactory.

Sincerely yours,

5. Mrs. Pennington displays her great typing ability.

6. I-lab students watch as Jodi Calrk types.

7. Linda Jacobs seems very intent on trying to figure out her Shorthand.

Math Moves

If at first you don't succeed, try try again. Many Indian Creek students enrolled in Math courses find themselves doing just that.

Although students may find math difficult to understand, Mrs. Weber, Mr. Hopkins, and Mr. Sturgell continue to help them conquer such courses as Basic Math, Algebra I and II, Geometry, Business Math, and Senior Math.

1. Mr. Hopkins helps Debbie Lyons with a Geometry problem.
2. "What was that again?"
3. These math students appear to be concentrating very hard on their assignment.
4. Algebra II students Mike Ladigo and Dale Kitchen trying to find the solution.

Exploring Science

Experimentation in grade school has grown into exploration of science in high school. Students have the opportunity to explore ideas and theories in Physical Science, Life Science, Biology I and II, Chemistry, and Physics. Students studying these courses enjoy a higher level of experimentation, dissection, and a general knowledge about science.

1. Mr. Myers shows great vitality in his first year of teaching.
2. Mr. Heckman, I.C.'s Chemistry teacher is still going strong.
3. One of the many skills students learn is how to use laboratory equipment.
4. Mr. Myers works his Biology I students very hard.

Social Studies Scene

Nathaniel Hawthorne wrote "Still there will be a connection with the long past." Students at Indian Creek find this true today as they learn of ancient empires in World History and the rise of our nation in U.S. History. Many students choose history courses in which they learn of more current happenings such as Geography, Psychology, Sociology, Government and Economics for Seniors, and American Problems in which students study current events.

1. Mr. Harmon takes a moment to listen to his students.
2. Hey Man!!
3. Joe Clephane points out an area in the South Pacific in Geography class.
4. One of Bill Howser's main objectives is paying attention in class.

Industrial Arts

One of Indian Creek's branches of Vocational training is the Industrial arts program. Boys, even girls who wish, may follow this line of classes rather than the academic subjects. Courses offered here at Indian Creek are Shop, Drafting and Power Mechanics classes. Those students who are particularly interested may attend Central Nine for more intense training.

Fun and Fitness

1. Sophomore girls wait for their P.E. class to begin.
2. Cindi Catt displays her diving ability.
3. Randy Feltner plunges in.
4. These boys learn and enjoy basketball.

Everyone's heard the saying "Early to bed, early to rise . . ." unfortunately, that's not all it takes to be healthy.

Indian Creek offers Physical Education courses to Freshmen, Sophomores, and any upper classmen who wish to continue in it. Students may gain fitness and skill in activities such as volleyball, basketball, bowling for the advanced co-ed class, and swimming was offered this year for the first time. Whatever the activity, students seem to enjoy this break from regular classroom subjects.

Experiences in Home Life

All children dream of the day when they can take on the role of their parents. As they grow older, their dreams take on realizations and they must plan for their future.

Home Economics helps prepare students for their future. It teaches decision making, nutrition, cooking and sewing, budgeting home expenses, and how to get along in family life. Courses are offered to all students and offer a learning experience in home life.

5. Learning how to be sociable in Home Ec. is vital.

6. Brenda West puts final touches on her sewing project.

7. "These tests aren't a piece of cake."

8. Teresa Ellis and Tina Doms enjoy sewing.

Ag. Classes Get Things Done

The Vocational Agriculture Department prides itself on being one of the most active departments at I.C. The shop facilities are used to repair equipment and to build needed new equipment. The department is headed by Joe Parks, who spends a lot of time supervising a variety of farm related projects. The agriculture shop is also used to store equipment owned by the local F.F.A. chapter.

Expressions in Art

Almost everyone admires an artists delicate touch, whether it's a painting of the scenic countryside or the modern abstract art, we all find talent that we wish we could develop.

Art courses at I.C. give students an opportunity to develop their artistic talent in many directions. Some of the art projects include Charcoal drawings, paintings, paper mache, God's eyes, leather crafts and macrame among other projects.

5. These art students are intent on finishing their various projects.

6. Mrs. Bray, Art department, spends many hours in preparation of her classes.

Who Do You Know?

Have you ever sat and listened to someone tell about his school career in a one room school house? We only had twelve graduates in our Senior class, everyone knew everything about you, and you were the best of friends.

As you sat and listened to those words, you might think about how many students at IC that possibly you don't know.

Only your closest friend knows everything about you (if he or she does know.) So look at these pictures, of some students at IC, then think and remember—Who do I know? Who do I REALLY know?

YOUTHS OF TODAY

ADULTS OF TOMORROW

We are youths of today, but suddenly things change and before we know it, we become the adults of tomorrow.

The purpose of Indian Creek High School and all the other secondary schools is to better the education of all students.

Life offers various opportunities and temptations for each of us to try. Some will try for the best, with specific goals in mind, and others are content with what they have.

For centuries, countless men have strived to attain their goals and yet several have failed. It's like at the end of the Rainbow, lies a pot of gold, many have searched for it, but few have found it.

Some will go on to college and pursue a career, others will take another path and carry on.

Whenever opportunities and temptations come to you, remember, whatever you choose will carry on through your youth of today and adulthood of tomorrow.

I know I'm going to hate to see it end

Freshmen, they're tortured, tormented, stuffed, and literally flushed. But they're active, oh yes, they run to their next class (if they can find it), they participate in all the school activities, from the very first homecoming—to the basketball season wrap-up—50's day, yes the freshmen are right there kicking in to do their part to make IC a truly student experience from start to finish.

how right it is to care.

The Sophomores, who are they? They're not upperclassmen preparing for graduation and they're not the new, incoming Freshmen.

Although Sophomores seem to be stuck in the middle, this second year of high school marks an important and memorable year in the stairway to graduation. Among the activities of the Sophomore class is what almost everyone looks forward to, the selection of class rings. Many students also mark their Sophomore year by getting their driver's licenses and gaining new freedom.

Who are the Sophomores? Yes, they're in the middle but they'll spend a great year and continue their climb to the top.

The Juniors, who are they? They're the spirited rivals of the Seniors. They're the hard and somewhat inexperienced workers you see at the concession stands. They're the jittery students awaiting the results of Girls' and Boys' State or wondering if their name will be called at the National Honor Society Tapping. They are the hard working committees preparing for the Prom, the big event of the year.

The word describing the Juniors of '77 is spirited. They have won the spirit stick many times throughout the year, well-deserving of it. In looking toward their Senior year, the Juniors at IC will continue this show of spirit and will do well in leading the school next year.

and all the memories we've shared?

*Poems Prayers and Promises by John Dever

"IF THERE IS ANY ACT OF FAITH WE CAN SHOW, LET ME DO IT NOW-FOR WE SHALL NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN"

S-E-N-I-O-R-S, SENIORS, SENIORS, S-E-N-I-O-R-S, SENIORS, SENIORS, S-E-N-I-O-R-S, SENIORS ARE THE VERY BEST, SENIORS OF IC HIGH!

As we were freshmen, we sat with gazed eyes, fixed upon those booming voices, belting out this cry at numerous IC functions. For three years, we listened as each class repeated the lyrics, but each year our class got a little braver to doubt and challenge how good they really were.

When the class of 1977 entered Indian Creek as the incoming freshman of 1974, we were meak, terrified, but yet; curious. Curious as to where our next class was, how long we had to get there and how we could avoid being "initiated by upperclassmen."

We all took our required classes and a few electives (including good old study hall). Some got involved in many extracurricular activities. Others preferred to go strickly the academic route. Decorating the halls for sectionals, cheering at pep sessions to drive our teams to victories were all a special part of our freshman year.

As sophomores, we were more at ease as the 1974-1975 school year began. There was no more criticizing from upperclassmen, now it was our turn. We looked forward for the highlights of our sophomore year, getting our class rings, each one representing our character. Remember the day we got our license—who doesn't? We realized it was worth a semester of driver's education after all.

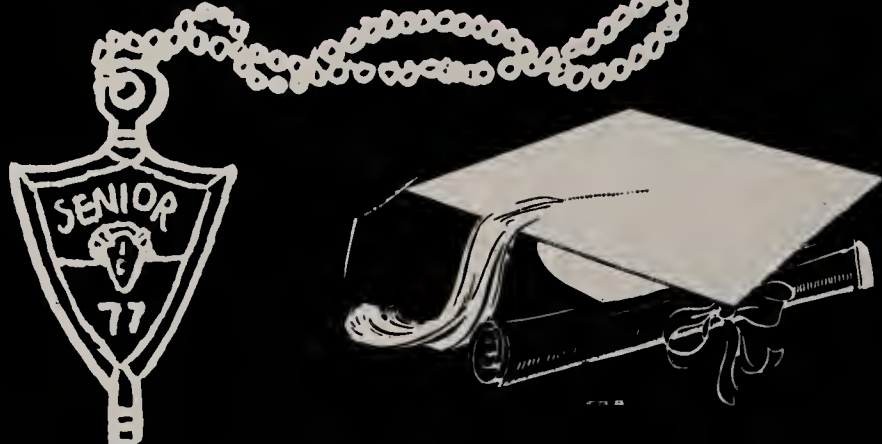

The two "big P's—playoffs and prom" were a super happening in our junior year. For the first time IC Braves made it to the Class A Play-offs, taking on the Lawerenceburg Tigers. We all cheered and backed our Braves, unfortunately we lost, but none of us will ever forget the thrill of being at the top.

"Stairway to Heaven" was the theme the junior class chose for the prom. Working at concessions during many football and basketball games covered the many expenses that made May 8th, 1976 a success.

Memories, when we look back and reminisce about our high school years, we will have some bad and good times included in those memories, but that's all that's left now, so make the best of it.

Seniors, how long we've waited to be able to associate ourselves with that word, and how fast it passed us by.

Kings Island, Senior Day, our last home basketball games, selecting our class officers: Darrell Procter—President, Lennie Zimmerman—Vice-President, Tammy Taylor—Secretary, and Susan Whitaker—Treasurer; our preacher, Rev. McClain; Class Colors, Burgundy and Silver; Commencement Cover and Ushers; and Speakers: Sandy Walker, Mary Jo Kuntz, Dawn Woods and Julie Richardson, all help the graduating class of 1977 remember their four great years at IC, and especially prove true their class motto, "IF THERE IS ANY ACT OF FAITH WE CAN SHOW, LET ME DO IT NOW, FOR WE SHALL NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN."

Seniors Recieve Honors

We all filed into the gym, apprehensive, wondering how many awards we will be honored with. You may have been upset or surprised at the award you did or didn't get. Those might have been the feelings of many Seniors on Wednesday, May 18th, as we received recognition for our outstanding achievements throughout high shcool

Some awards given were: Dale Kitchen—Valedictorian; Steve Davenport and Darrell Proctor—Salutatorians; Dawn Woods and Steve Brown—National School Choral Award; Sandy Walker—Speech Award; Tami Barrett—Business Award; Mary Jo Kuntz—Best Actress and Best Thespian Award; Mecheal Reed—John Phillip Sousa Band Award and others too numerous to mention.

Although this day is primarily for Seniors, it also is a memorable one for the Juniors. Why? It's the turning of the rings, the very beginning of their Senior year, and the day they are also awarded the Senior Key, a tradition that started long ago at IC.

There were many happy smiles on the class of 1977 as they received the award that they had worked so hard for.

MAY 20, 1977---

Graduation for the class of 1977 was held in the high school gymnasium. Along with the student speakers; Julie Richardson, Dawn Woods, Mary Jo Kuntz and Sandy Walker, Rev. Gene McLain spoke to the graduates on life being a "Proving Ground."

Debbie Ray sang "I Will Never Pass This Way Again" the Sr. Class Motto as the prelude before the graduates marched in to the traditional "Pomp and Circumstances."

The band and choirs provided all music during the ceremony.

Mr. Youngen stated, that "Graduation is the biggest production of the year" and his statement was proved true has the high school gymnasium was packed with people observing the graduation service with smiles of achievement or tears of happiness on their face as they watched that special one walk down the stairs, receive his diploma, or change his tassles, and realize he's now "Alumni of ICHS."

Thanks, Cooks and Custodians- We Appreciate you!

It's 12:00 p.m., the beginning of high school lunch, kids dash about to get a good place in line. The faces that meet you as you go through the line, are the cooks—the one's who have worked all morning to prepare our lunch.

After lunch, most of the janitors arrive, they greet you with a big smile as the 3:05 p.m. bell rings, you exchange greetings with them and dash out for home. The cooks work mainly in the morning, the janitors mainly at night, but without their hard work, who'd prepare the meals and clean the school—Thanks, Cooks and Custodians—We Appreciate You!

Marion, Nobelsville and Indian Creek

WNDE School Spirit Contest

Thanks so much, Mr. McFadden, we could have never done it without you!

Indian Creek placed third in the WNDE school spirit contest. The first place winner was Marion High School and following them was Nobelsville.

Mr. McFadden was the main instigator of the contest, he gave up a lot of his free time and spent it on the contest. The pictures you see here, were taken at the sign-a-thon over Spring Break in April, 1977.

You might have signed what seemed to be a billion sheets with "WNDE School Spirit Contest" printed on them, or you may have only signed one, but all of us can take pride in the fact, that of all schools eligible to participate in the contest, INDIAN CREEK WAS THIRD!

FRIENDS. . .

PEOPLE HELPING US. . .

Well, here you are at the last part of the book, to some people it may be the least important part, however we would like for you to look at it as the most important part.

You see, without the support of these ads and the managers who were so willing to support our book we'd have no yearbook.

So now, instead of closing the Tomahawk, turn to the next page and look at the ads. It's the last section but by no means the least important section.

The advertisers who bought an ad are our friends . . . people helping us. We thank them for their support.

Congratulations!

ALL ABOARD! The doors are closing—hurry, be our passenger to view the happenings of our town and places. We will go through Trafalgar, Morgantown and Nineveh—we will look with joy at our beautiful countryside. Departure time is the end of the 1976-1977 school year. Hurry! Don't be late! All aboard for points unknown.

As we leave our beloved home towns, we realize our lives do not have the determined destination of a bus, but like the bus, each step will have a significant bearing on our lives. Some of us will leave the bus on one of its stops—others will go to the end of the line, still others will make the round trip and return "Back Home."

Whatever our travels may involve, as we go through life, or however far we may travel from Indian Creek, no one can take away the memories and advantages we have gained from living in a rural community and from attending a rural school.

Our ancestors, genuine, home spun natives, early Indiana poets wrote about, all the people who made this community, of which we are most proud. They came to this area to create a life for themselves in the way they so deserved. Many became farmers, many business people, but all had staunch principles, a love for his fellow man and a strong faith in God. For this heritage, we are most thankful. Let us cherish, but never abuse this throughout our lives. By this doing—our children, our grandchildren and on into generations can proudly say—YES, WE'RE HERE TOO!

CLAUDE RENNER- A GREAT AND APPRECIATED MAN

"I don't think he ever had an enemy in the school room—he's been a good man, not only to the public, but to his family." These words were spoken by Mrs. Claude M. Renner following the death of her 70 year old husband.

For 47 years, Mr. Renner taught school. He began teaching in 1923 and he retired in 1971.

Mr. Renner was well known for his help to young people. He was an avid sports fan and served as official scorer for many years. He received a life time pass for athletic events at IC in recognition of his service.

He was indeed a great and appreciated man and an inspiration to many people—the memories of Claude Renner will always linger on.

Claude Renner was born on May 16, 1905 in Morgon County. He died on November 12, 1976. He had been in failing health for some time, he was the son of Millard and Gretta Morris Renner.

It is quite certain that relatives, and close friends of Claude Renner will always be proud of the outstanding achievements displayed by this man throughout his life.
